

Megan Flint

Megan Flint, M.Mus.(Hons), B.Ed., Dip. Tchg., ATCL (Voice), has a background in education and music, as both a primary school teacher and music specialist. Megan completed her Masters degree in Choral Conducting through The University of Auckland with Dr Karen Grylls. She is a practitioner of Kodály-inspired music education, having completed her training through The Cuskelly College of Music, Australia. Megan is the face behind Kodály Aotearoa and fills her time making music with students, mentoring teachers and facilitating professional development opportunities for educators around the country. Megan is the co-author of Hear Our Voices, a handbook for leaders of children's choirs and presents the successful national workshop series Primary Gestures for the NZ Choral Federation, as well as being a conducting mentor.